

» www.study-in-bavaria.de is very easy to navigate. I was instantly able to find all the information on studying in Bavaria I needed. The short profiles of all Bavarian universities and the search facility for courses were particularly helpful.

» Bavarian universities have an excellent reputation. Staff at the International Office were always very friendly and helpful whenever I had any questions. They gave me really useful advice and made me feel very welcome.

» I'm excited about the wide range of degree courses on offer in Bavaria. Depending on your personal interests and career goals, you can choose between a more academic path at a university or a more practice-oriented approach at a university of applied sciences.

Note

This brochure is published as part of the public relations work of the Bavarian State Government. It may not be used for canvassing purposes by political parties, canvassers or electoral assistants within five months of an election. This applies to State, Parliamentary, local and European elections. During this period, in particular, its distribution at election rallies and party information stands as well as its inclusion in, printing on, and attachment to, party political information or promotional material constitutes improper use. Nor may it be passed on to other persons for canvassing purposes. Even if there is no election forthcoming, this brochure must not be used in such a manner that it could be construed as support by the State Government for specific political groups. The parties are permitted to use the brochure for purposes of informing their own members.
